- If known on a professional level, the recommendation letter should also include a description of the applicant's tenure and responsibilities of their position

I have known Tom for approximately three years and he should be welcomed into the membership of the Multnomah Athletic Club.

I got to know Tom after he started dating, and ultimately married, a friend who is also a member of the Multnomah Athletic Club.

In the time I have known Tom, I have gotten to know him quite well. We socialize regularly have have vacationed together.

I can personally vouch for Tom. He is a warm, humorous and kind person who will add to the strength of the Multnomah Athletic club community.

Tom is a professor and researcher at OHSU and is also involved with a related private company in the medical field. Although I haven't directly worked with Tom in the professional world, I know that he is successful and well respected in that arena.

Tom grew up in Oregon and has lived in the Portland area for decades. I have seen first hand that he is known and well liked in his local neighborhood.

In conclusion, Tom is exactly the type of person who the Multnomah Athletic Club should eagerly welcome into its membership.

Please let me know if I can provide additional information about Tom. Thanks!
